

A photograph of a dental clinic. In the center is a white countertop with a stainless steel sink and a chrome faucet. Above the sink is a white cabinet with a paper towel dispenser. To the left and right of the sink are dental treatment units with various hoses and instruments. The background shows a large window with a view of a brick building and trees. The lighting is bright and natural.

NHS & Private Practice: The Comparisons

ebook author Sedgfield Dental Practice

NHS & Private Practice: The Comparisons

Do you know the Difference in Cost & Time? NHS or Private Practice

Sedgefield Dental Practice

NHS

Treatment appointments available within one week of diagnosis

How long are you having to wait for any required treatment?

Easy payment plan available covering all your examination, oral hygiene and emergency appointments from under 46p per day

NHS Dental Treatment is not free for most patients.

New NHS charges from 1st April 2018

Membership plans are affordable and cost effective, with the following benefits to you and your family, if required.

Band 1 £21.60

Peace of mind, your dental health examination and hygiene treatment appointment fees are included within your membership.

Band 2 £59.60

All same day urgent consultations, temporary treatment and denture repairs carried out at this practice are also included.

Band 3 £256.50

To find out more about the membership and what else it covers. Speak with one of our team at the practice.

We offer early late and same day appointments

Do you have difficulty in getting an appointment time to suit you?

New Patient appointments are very thorough and last 45 minutes.

How long does your dentist spend with you?

Out of Hours emergency contact number provided direct to your dentist

Emergency calls to 111

NHS & Private Practice: The Comparisons

If you are having problems trying to access dental treatment, please give us a call and we will endeavour to arrange treatment soon as possible. Please Click Here to Contact one of our team